Good-day, Sheriff

Would you please take a few moments from your daily schedule to review this our letter which has been dispatched to all 21 counties. It is with respect and candidness that we will convey our thoughts concerning the demise of our Republic to you through this correspondence.

It is our hope that you, the Sheriff – the only elected law officer in the county, the only one directly accountable to the people – that you will uphold our constitutions and Bill of Rights. By doing so you would protect the people from unlawful acts and warrants issued by federal, state, local and even international bodies, and will not permit their agents from overstepping their lawful jurisdiction.

It has been said that to know or to judge the future one must know and understand history. Lord Acton stated, “Power tends to corrupt, and absolute power corrupts absolutely.” The founders of this Republic knew this all too well (Constitution, Art. 4, Sec. 4); therefore they erected a system that not only limited the powers of government, but restricted those powers as well. In addition to the restriction upon government, our Constitution, the founders added a safeguard, the Bill of Rights, whose ten amendments are in perfect harmony with Jefferson’s Unanimous Declaration, which demonstrated the laws of nature and the reason for establishing government. The very concept of individual rights was also carried over to the constitution of each of the several states. Our state, the State of New Jersey, was no exception; Article 1, Section 1 clearly promulgates the concept that the individual is sovereign. To sum up this idea, individuals came together collectively to form a pact to protect their individuality. This pact (government) was and is only allowed to do what an individual can morally and lawfully do. Thus a wonderful foundation was laid, upon which the people could in their own way find tranquility and happiness.

Time, in itself, does indeed dictate that freedom has always been short-lived, always, no exceptions! This is due to many different factors; however only three in passing will be mentioned:

a. Individuals or groups who desire to get that which belongs to others, including power and control

b. Complacency

c. Plenty, for "Material abundance without character is the surest way to destruction." – Thomas Jefferson

It should be mentioned that all three complement each other and have entered into modern day America.

America is no longer a nation that prides herself on individual liberty, but rather, she has become a purely socialist nation. Hence, under socialism, the accountability of the public servant is removed, and more and more rules and regulations are introduced which violate the nature of liberty. With the passing of time, as we have witnessed in this century, the system becomes more brazen, arrogant, and ruthless. As the great French statesman Frederic Bastiat observed, under such conditions the law becomes perverted. As we have seen, the concentration of power in a central government (Federal) has destroyed the "We the People" of our Constitution's Preamble, as control of government is removed from the greatest check at the most important level, the local, and the people themselves.

Due to the deliberate and well planned dismantling of our Nation's sacred documents, the Declaration of Independence, state and national constitutions and our Bill of Rights, an epoch of constant hostility has developed in this century between the people and government.

Therefore we believe that State rights and the separation of powers are in dire danger from the continued growth of the federal government. In the process of this growth, the state government becomes subject to federal dictates; thus both governments extend beyond their lawful jurisdiction leaving the good people helpless in a sea of rules and regulations that violate lex non scripta (common law). Below you will find listed in brevity a sample of activities undertaken by a runaway government.

- In March 1933, President Roosevelt issued Proclamations 2039 and 2040 and thereby declared a state of emergency, thus suspending the law of the land, our constitution, and subjugating every American to emergency rule. "... Under the powers delegated to me by these statutes the president may seize property, organize and control the means of production, seize commodities, assign military forces abroad, institute martial law, seize and control all transportation and communication, regulate the operation of private enterprise, restrict travel, and, in a plethora of particular ways, control the lives of all American citizens." (Senate report 93-549 issued in 1973) Thus as the Senate's own investigation makes apparent the American people have been declared the enemy.

- In 1961 the State Department issued Publication 7277, The United States Program for General and Complete Disarmament in a Peaceful World, a document which outlines the plan to completely disarm and disband all U.S. military forces in favor of a United Nations standing army.
- In 1968, as Americans were dying in Vietnam supposedly in defense of freedom, Congress passed the Gun Control Act. “According to Jews for the Preservation of Firearms Ownership evidence strongly suggests that the late Senator Thomas J. Dodd personally implanted the Nazi weapons law into United States legislation.” (Guns and Ammo, May, 1993, 30). Not surprisingly this is in harmony with another totalitarian plan, the Communist Rules for Revolution (#8): “Cause the registration and licensing of all firearms on some pretext, with a view to confiscating them and leaving the population helpless and hopeless.”
- On Feb. 12, 1972 Pres. Richard Nixon signed Executive Order 11649 which divided the U.S. into ten regions (Federal Register, Vol. 37, 30), in direct violation of Art. 4, Sec. 4 which guarantees “every state in this Union a Republican Form of Government.”
- In Pabst v. Gerald Ford, Pres. of the U.S., Judge Norman Black stated in regard to Operation Cable Splicer and its subsidiary plan Operation Garden Plot, “What I have seen so far from your offer of proof indicates to me that there is no question but there exists a program for the internment of prisoners of war and civilian internees. I don’t think there is any question.” (District Court of the U.S., for the Southern District of Texas, Houston Div., case # 76-H667)
- The Omnibus Crime Control Act, Sect. 5108, leaves the door open for UN “peacekeeping” forces on U.S. soil. The San Francisco Chronicle is already beating the drums: “Next Hot Spot for United Nations – the United States” (Oct. 7, 1993)
- The Houston Chronicle of May 1, 1991 reported that German troops were set to establish a military base in the U.S. at a site 83 miles north of El Paso.—That is now a reality; in 1996 Germany took over Holloman AFB, New Mexico.
- In a story titled “The Dis-united States” the Los Angeles Times of Aug. 25, 1992, reported how the U.S. will be divided into different governmental regions.

- On Aug. 26, 1992, the Topeka Journal reported “Kansas to Train Russian Cops”. Governor Joan Sweeney said, “Eight to ten police officers will be coming to Kansas for classes at the Kansas Law Enforcement Center.”
- The Wall Street Journal, Sept. 24, 1992, showed the erasing of the border between the U.S. and Canada.
- President Bush stated, “The US is prepared to make available our bases and facilities for multi-national training and field exercises.” (Washington Times, Sept. 2, 1992) Once such base is Fort Dix.
- The murderous attacks in 1992 and 1993 by U.S. Marshals, BATF and FBI agents on peaceable Americans at Ruby Ridge and Waco well illustrate the mentality and criminality of the federal police.
- On May 10, 1993, United States Marines were given a questionnaire at their base at Twenty Nine Palms, commanded by General Russell H. Sutton. They were asked their opinion on the statement: “I would fire upon U.S. citizens who refuse or resist confiscation of firearms banned by the U.S. government.”
- On May 3, 1993 Pres. Bill Clinton signed “Presidential Decision Directive #25 which turned U.S. forces over to UN command for “operations authorized by the Security Council” – in violation of Art. II, Sec. 2, which states that “The President shall be Commander in Chief of the Army and Navy of the United States.”
- Throughout the 1990s the military has been invading U.S. towns and cities in training exercises. Yuma, Arizona, Detroit (live ammunition was used), Pittsburgh and Fort Lauderdale have all been targeted. The military has also participated in drug raids alongside law enforcement. This raises two very important issues: A country that prides itself on freedom will never train its military in a civilian dwelling. Military participation in law enforcement violates the Posse Comitatus Act.

We believe, Sheriff, that we have made the case that tyranny is looming over your jurisdiction. Someday soon you might have to decide whether you will take active measures to defend the people of your county, or let Federal police or U.S. or even the UN military run roughshod over us. We hope and pray that you and your officers truly comprehend the meaning of your sworn oath and will act accordingly.

In the cause of freedom,
Earl G. Dickey
